

Satoshi Ozawa
Executive Vice President
Member of the Board
Toyota Motor Corporation

Business Unit Toyota No. 1 (business)

Satoshi Ozawa was born August 5, 1949. He graduated from the University of Tokyo's Faculty of Economics in March 1974 and joined Toyota Motor Corporation (TMC) in April the same year.

Mr. Ozawa was appointed general manager of the Domestic Sales Planning Division's Sales Administration Department in January 1998. In January the following year, he was made general manager of the Human Resources Development Division, and in January 2000, deputy general manager of the Human Resources Division. In January 2001, he became general manager of the Overseas Planning Division, and in June 2003, became a managing officer. In June 2007, he was appointed to the position of senior managing director. And in May 2010, Mr. Ozawa became an executive vice president and a member of the board.

Key non-TMC posts

Corporate auditor, Toyota Industries Corporation (June 2014-)